

Redhawk Makes Final 4 land Selections

Denver, August 12, 2007:

Redhawk announced today that they have made the final selection for land locations in India. Redhawk evaluated more than twenty-five locations in multiple cities and has narrowed its search to a total of four locations in Bangalore and Hyderabad. Redhawk has completed the initial due diligence on the land parcels and is working with the clients, investors, and real estate development consulting services companies to sign the final land location agreement.

Bipin Agarwal, CEO for Redhawk commented, "Both Bangalore and Hyderabad are key cities for further growth in India. Redhawk believes that both of these cities have tremendous opportunities and are the right fit for our strategy. As we launch our first project we want to align with our clients, our investors and key partners to make the final land selection". Bipin commented that Redhawk will be announcing the final land selection in the next 60 days. Upon selection of the land parcel, Redhawk will commence master-planning and infrastructure development.

About Redhawk Investments Group
