

Redhawk Group adds more depth to its management team

Denver, January 08, 2007: Redhawk Investments Group, LLC today announced the addition of Nicholas C. Kalavity as a Senior Advisor to the management team. He has joined Redhawk Investment Group to lead many of the business development efforts including client attainment, strategic alliances and sales/marketing. Mr. Kalavity feels “this is a unique, compelling and timely opportunity and I look forward to working with Bipin and Redhawk’s impressive team”. Mr. Kalavity has over twenty-five years of experience in a variety of leadership business development, sales/marketing and strategic functions. Since 2001, Mr. Kalavity has operated or co-owned consulting/advisory companies and focused on supporting several start-up ventures including a long-standing business relationship with Mr. Agarwal. In that capacity, Mr. Kalavity helped cultivate clients for off-shore management service based services while also supporting strategic partnerships, fund raising and providing other vital functions.

Prior to 2001, Mr. Kalavity held executive level positions with several notable telecommunications companies and is graduated from U. of Texas/Austin.

Along with this, Redhawk also announced the addition of Dileep Reddy as a senior advisor to the company. Dileep Reddy is an entrepreneur with extensive real estate development background and experience. He has been in the commercial real estate portfolio development business for the last 12 years. He has extensive experience in real estate acquisitions, management of office space, construction management, leasing, loans and contract negotiations. He has had a number of businesses related to commercial real estate, cable television and broadcasting, Oil and Gas, and Coal Mining and Sales services. He has a lot of history of acquiring low performing commercial properties and increasing their value by bringing together a number of different elements. His experience with real estate financing and organizations will be of great value to the Redhawk team. Mr. Reddy commented that the domain specific nature of this project is what interested him initially. He commented, “The growth in India at this time is the beginning of the cycle and the team with the most value proposition for clients and employees will survive the growth”. He also mentioned that the “Twenty Minute Lifestyle” approach is very innovative and should also provide a lot of momentum to the business idea.

Mr. Reddy has a MBA from Sangamon State University, Springfield Illinois.
